ITINERARY

Day 1
Depart Santa Cruz by charter coach; board your overnight flight in San Francisco

Day 2
Arrive Jogjakarta on the island of Java, transfer to the Melia Purosani Hotel – within easy walking distance of the Sultan’s Palace. An evening to explore Jogjakarta on your own.

Day 3
We’ll begin by exploring the ninth-century Borobudur Temple. A UNESCO World Heritage site, the temple’s nine platforms are decorated with thousands of relief panels and statues. The world’s largest Buddhist monument, Borobudur was abandoned and lost for centuries under a tangle of jungle growth and volcanic ash. Rediscovered in the early 1800s, a massive restoration project begun in 1973 has revived Borobudur to its former glory. We’ll also visit two related nearby Temples, Pawon and Mendut. After lunch we will tour the Sultan’s Palace, Kraton, home of the only pre-colonial ruler still governing an Indonesian province. We’ll end the day with a visit to a batik home industry, Koragede silverworks, and the famous “Wayang Kulit” leather-puppet show. (BL)

Day 4
This morning we’ll visit Hindu temples including Prambanan. Built about 850 A.D., Prambanan, one of the world’s largest Hindu temples, is also a UNESCO World Heritage site. Located in a complex of shrines and temples, the area has been transformed into an archeological park filled with examples of the architecture, sculpture, and religious iconography from more than 1,200 years ago. You will be free to explore the complex and the city until evening when we will have dinner and enjoy a classical Javanese dance performance. (BD)

Day 5
We will fly to Denpasar, Bali and transfer to Ubud, a center of Balinese culture and art. We’ll spend the next four nights at the Maya Ubud Resort and Spa, honored as “the best spa and resort in southeast Asia.” You’ll have the afternoon to explore Ubud and the spa’s 25 acres of grounds and resources at your leisure. Tonight we will attend a Gamelan performance while enjoying dinner at a local restaurant. (BD) both traditional and contemporary. Bali’s rich artistic history was supplemented in the 20th century by expatriate European painters and waves of artists and celebrities. While many local artists continue ancient traditions, there is a broad assortment of contemporary and abstract art produced in this region. After breakfast at the Maya Ubud, we will join our local guide for a walking tour of the city, lunch at a local restaurant, and then set you loose to shop, explore, or relax at the spa. (BL)

Day 7
This day will be dedicated to an artisan’s tour of Bali. Famous for multi-generational craft businesses and detailed workmanship, we’ll explore both the region and many of the galleries of these craftsmen and women. We’ll begin at the stone carving village of Batu Bulan, also famous for the Balinese mythological dance, Barong and Kris – you’ll see a brief performance of this uniquely Balinese dance. We’ll move on to Celuk, the silver capitol of Bali known for delicate silver jewelry and fine goldsmiths; then on to Mas and its exquisite wood carvings. You’ll also have an opportunity to see rural life in Bali with hundreds of small home-steads and communities. (B)

Day 8
After breakfast we will visit two Hindu temples. The first, Gunung Kawi consists of ten three-story tall shrines carved in a cliff face in a fabulous setting of terraced rice fields. The second is the famed Goa Gadjah, the Elephant Cave, built in the 9th century, with its temple, baths, and gardens. We’ll lunch at Lamak, arguably Ubud’s best restaurant. Our last stop is the Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary on the outskirts of Ubud. This unique destination is both a Hindu spiritual center, including a temple to the goddess Durga, and a scientific sanctuary with ongoing academic research into the habits and social structures of the hundreds of long-tailed macaques with their complex society and female-controlled family groups. (BL)

Day 9
We’ll leave Ubud, returning to the South Bali coast, sightseeing along the way. This afternoon we’ll check into Nusa Dua Beach Hotel, a member of the very-exclusive Leading Hotels of the World – with traditional Southeast Asian design with elegant grounds, top-notch service, and a great tropical beach. Late this afternoon we will take a leisurely ride to Bali’s southernmost extremity to visit the highly

Day 6
Located in the ravines and rice paddies of the Balinese foothills, Ubud (pop. 8,000) has become a center of Balinese art, venerated temple of Uluwatu, perched on a sheer cliff overlooking the Indian Ocean. Near sunset a troop of dancers will stage the dramatic Kecak dance, climaxed by a semi-trance fire-walk. We will dine at Jimbaran Bay, well known for its BBQ seafood. (BD)

Day 10
A morning to explore the Nusa Dua Hotel, the beach...or sleep in. This afternoon we will visit the outskirts of Denpasar and the Batik making center of Bali. Batik, which incorporates a delicate process of drawing, waxing and dyeing is an ancient art indigenous to Indonesia. The fabrics, once controlled exclusively by the royal families, are now a source of national pride. We will proceed to the village of Mengwi with its 17th century Taman Ayun Royal Temple, a legacy of Mengwi Empire. You will also visit the nearby sacred monkey forest of Alas Kedaton. The afternoon will end with a spectacular sunset at Tanah Lot Temple. This evening is at leisure. (B)

Day 11
The last full day in Bali is yours to plan and explore with lots of untapped sightseeing destinations and shopping opportunities. For the more adventurous rent a motor scooter, try some mountain cycling, rafting, sailing, skin or scuba diving, or a round of ocean-side golf. There are cafes, pubs and discotheques if you’d like to try the night life. And, you are at one of the great resort hotels, spas and beaches in the world. Enjoy! (B)

Day 12
Depart Bali on an afternoon flight to Singapore, returning to San Francisco the same day, or explore Singapore for four days before returning.
